

Family Ministry:

Kingdom Living Family Challenge: "As for Me and My House"

Initiate a challenge for families to implement Kingdom living principles at home for a week, such as sharing, forgiveness, and serving one another. Families can share their experiences and learnings at the end of the week in a special gathering.

Duration:

A weeklong challenge designed to immerse families in Kingdom living, with daily focuses and weekly reflection sessions.

Week 1: Foundations of Kingdom Living

- Day 1: Unconditional Love

- Activity: Family members write anonymous notes of appreciation and love to each other, discussing God's unconditional love in the evening.

- Day 2: Forgiveness and Reconciliation

- Activity: A family circle where each member asks for and offers forgiveness, reflecting on Matthew 18:21-22.

- Day 3: Serving One Another

- Activity: Each family member chooses a chore or task usually done by someone else, serving them for the day.

- Day 4: Prayer and Worship Together

- Activity: A family prayer and worship night, focusing on seeking God's Kingdom first in every aspect of life.

- Day 5: Generosity

- Activity: The family gathers items to donate to those in need or decides on a charity to support financially, embodying the generosity of the Kingdom.

- Day 6: Stewardship

- Activity: Implement a family project that promotes environmental stewardship, like planting a tree or starting a recycling program at home.

- Day 7: Reflection and Rest

- Activity: A restful family day, sharing reflections on the week's activities and how they brought the family closer to Kingdom principles.
